Cenveo Publisher Services Provides Print and Fulfillment Services for the Society for Scholarly Publishing

Strengthening Support of the Society's Annual Meeting

Columbia, MD—November 15, 2016—Cenveo Publisher Services, a division of Cenveo, Inc. (NYSE: CVO) will provide print and fulfillment services for the 2017 Society for Scholarly Publishing (SSP) Annual Meeting to be held at the Westin Boston Waterfront in Boston, MA, May 31-June 2. A long-standing partner of society and association publishers, Cenveo offers innovative print capabilities and an experienced, customer-focused account management team. The materials will be printed in the Lancaster, Pennsylvania facility, which offers high-end printing expertise and unique production capabilities that support the scholarly publishing market.

The SSP uses a range of printed materials to enhance the attendee experience leading up to and during its Annual Meeting. From the first save-the-date postcard landing in mailboxes to the handy onsite program guide, these materials provide valuable information to inform attendees about meeting topics, speakers, locations, and events. Last year, SSP introduced a pocket schedule that featured a "schedule-at-a-glance" which was very popular. For 2017 Cenveo will produce and distribute a "save-the-date" postcard, the preliminary program, the onsite program and the recently introduced pocket schedule.

"We continue to enjoy working with Cenveo. We are grateful for their support through the years and pleased that we are able to engage them in a mutually beneficial way," said Melanie Dolechek, SSP Executive Director. "The quality and timeliness of our promotional and resource materials is critical to the success of the meeting."

"Managing the print and fulfillment for SSP's annual meeting, is another example of our ongoing commitment to the scholarly publishing industry," explains Paul Yeager, Sales Account Executive at Cenveo. "From manuscript submission through delivery of print and digital content, we provide end-to-end support for scholarly publishers. We've worked for more than 135 years with the STM publishing industry and we plan to do so for another 135!"

About the Society for Scholarly Publishing

The Society for Scholarly Publishing (SSP), founded in 1978, is a nonprofit organization formed to promote and advance communication among all sectors of the scholarly publication community through networking, information dissemination, and facilitation of new developments in the field. SSP members represent all aspects of scholarly publishing — including publishers, printers, e-products developers, technical service providers, librarians, and editors. SSP members come from a wide range of large and small commercial and nonprofit organizations. They meet at SSP's annual meetings, educational seminars, and Librarian Focus Groups to hear the latest trends from respected colleagues and to discuss common and mutual (and sometimes divergent) goals and viewpoints.
