Cenveo Announces Commencement of Senior Notes Offering

STAMFORD, CT – (March 8, 2012) – Cenveo, Inc. (NYSE: CVO, “Cenveo”) announced today that its wholly-owned subsidiary, Cenveo Corporation, has commenced an offering of $450 million aggregate principal amount of senior notes due 2020. The Notes will be unconditionally guaranteed on a senior unsecured basis by Cenveo and substantially all of its existing and future North American subsidiaries. Net proceeds of the offering will be used to fund Cenveo’s previously announced tender offer of its 10½% senior notes due 2016, 7⅞% senior subordinated notes due 2013 and 8⅜% senior subordinated notes due 2014, or otherwise refinance such indebtedness, and to pay certain related costs and expenses.

The Notes have not been and will not initially be registered under the Securities Act of 1933, as amended (the "Securities Act"), or any state securities laws, and unless so registered, may not be offered or sold in the United States except pursuant to an exemption from, or in a transaction not subject to, the registration requirements of the Securities Act and applicable state securities laws. This press release does not and shall not constitute an offer to sell or a solicitation of an offer to buy any security and shall not constitute, nor shall there be any sale of these securities in any state or jurisdiction in which, an offer, solicitation or sale would be unlawful.

Statements made in this release, other than those concerning historical financial information, may be considered “forward-looking statements,” which are based upon current expectations and involve a number of assumptions, risks and uncertainties that could cause actual results to differ materially from such forward-looking statements. In view of such uncertainties, investors should not place undue reliance on our forward-looking statements. Such statements speak only as of the date of this release, and we undertake no obligation to publicly update or revise any forward-looking statements, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise. Factors that could cause actual results to differ materially from management’s expectations include, without limitation: (i) the recent United States and global economic conditions, which have adversely affected us and could continue to do so; (ii) our substantial level of indebtedness, which could impair our financial condition and prevent us from fulfilling our business obligations; (iii) our ability to service or refinance our debt; (iv) the terms of our indebtedness imposing significant restrictions on our operating and financial flexibility; (v) additional borrowings that are available to us could further exacerbate our risk exposure from debt; (vi) our ability to successfully integrate acquired businesses into our business; (vii) a decline of our consolidated profitability or profitability within one of our individual reporting units could result in the impairment of our assets, including goodwill, other long-lived assets and deferred tax assets; (viii) intense competition and fragmentation in our industry; (ix) the general absence of long-term customer agreements in our industry, subjecting our business to quarterly and cyclical fluctuations; (x) factors affecting the United States postal services impacting demand for our products; (xi) the availability of the internet and other electronic media may adversely affect our business; (xii) increases in paper costs and decreases in its availability; (xiii) our labor relations; (xiv) our compliance with environmental laws; (xv) our dependence on key management personnel; (xvi) our dependence upon information technology systems; and (xvii) our international operations and the risks associated with operating outside of the United States. This list of factors is not exhaustive, and new factors may emerge or changes to the foregoing factors may occur that would impact our business. Additional information regarding these and other factors can be found in Cenveo, Inc.’s periodic filings with the SEC, which are available at <http://www.cenveo.com>.
