Cenveo, Inc. Acquires Printegra Corporation

Significantly strengthens Cenveo's position in high growth short-run printing

Enhances Cenveo's leading custom envelope offering

Transaction expected to be accretive to 2007 earnings

STAMFORD, CT – (February 12, 2007) - Robert G. Burton, Sr., Chairman and Chief Executive Officer of Cenveo, Inc. (NYSE: CVO), announced today that the Company has acquired Printegra Corporation ("Printegra"), a portfolio company of Huron Capital Partners LLC, in an all cash transaction. Printegra and its divisions, National Imprint Corporation and Synergy Label, are some of the top brand names within the short-run printing industry. As a market leader with a longstanding operating history in providing custom short-run printing solutions to the business communication market, Printegra generates annual revenues of approximately $90 million. The transaction is expected to be accretive to earnings in 2007. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Printegra operates thirteen strategically located facilities across the United States. The 780-employee company is recognized for its high level of customer service, high-quality production, on-time fulfillment, and ease of transaction processing. Printegra's product line of printed business communication documents, regularly consumed by small and large businesses, include laser cut sheets, envelopes, business forms, security documents, and labels. Its primary customer focus is the distributorship base along with other significant resale channels.

Mr. Burton stated:

"Printegra's presence in the industry coupled with its reputation as a high-quality provider of services is a natural enhancement to our already strong envelope, forms and label operations. This strategic acquisition immediately establishes Cenveo as the leader in the growing market for short-run and highly-customized printed products. The combination of these market leaders is a powerful opportunity to solidify our position as the leading competitor in the custom envelope print market. Additionally, Printegra's outstanding relationships with their customer base will provide significant growth opportunities for Cenveo. I look forward to welcoming the talented and dedicated employees of Printegra to Cenveo."

Mr. Burton concluded:

"As we have with our announced agreement to acquire Cadmus, the acquisition of Printegra continues to deliver on our commitment to grow the Company in higher growth sectors of the printing marketplace. We will continue to look for growth opportunities in segments that strengthen our core business. I look forward to discussing more about Printegra with our shareholders on the Company's 4th Quarter conference call on March 1st."

Statements made in this release, other than those concerning historical financial information, may be considered forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date of this release and are based upon current expectations and involve a number of assumptions, risks and uncertainties that could cause the actual result to differ materially from such forward-looking statements. Those assumptions, risks and uncertainties include, without limitation: (1) uncertainties regarding future growth and our ability to successfully integrate acquisitions; (2) substantial indebtedness impairing our financial condition and limiting our ability to incur additional debt; (3) indebtedness imposing significant restrictions on our business; (4) additional indebtedness exacerbating the above factors; (5) debt instruments providing cross defaults causing all debt to become due and payable as a result of a default under an unrelated debt instrument; (6) our history of losses and uncertain return to consistent profitability; (7) the absence of long-term customer agreements in our industry, subjecting our business to fluctuations; (8) factors affecting the U.S. postal services; (9) increases in paper costs and decreases in its availability; (10) availability of alternative delivery media; (11) intense competition; (12) supply, availability, and costs of raw materials and components; (13) fires or explosions at any of the Company's facilities; (14) environmental rules and regulations, non-compliance with which may expose the Company to adverse consequences; (15) acquisitions that might be unsuccessful; (16) contract pricing and timing of awards; (17) changing economic and political conditions in the U.S. and in other countries; (18) dependence on key management personnel; (19) customer product acceptance; (20) continued access to technical and capital resources; (21) availability of insurance coverage at acceptable terms; (22) changes in accounting or tax rules or pronouncements; (23) actual pension asset returns and assumptions regarding future returns, discount rates, and service costs; (24) changes in cost estimates related to restructuring or relocation of facilities; (25) the timing and extent of changes in interest rates; (26) access to capital markets and the costs thereof; (27) legal proceedings; and (28) other economic, political, and technological risks and uncertainties.

This list of factors is not exhaustive, and new factors may emerge or changes to the foregoing factors may occur that would impact the Company's business. Additional information regarding these and other factors may be contained in the Parent's filings with the SEC. All such risk factors are difficult to predict, contain material uncertainties that may affect actual results and may be beyond the Company's control.

These risks and uncertainties are set forth under Item 1 and Item 1A, Risk Factors, in Cenveo's Annual Report on Form 10-K for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2005, and Cenveo's other SEC filings. A copy of the Annual Report is available at <http://www.cenveo.com>.
